KANSAS CITY ON DISPLAY

Available: Tues., June 26; Wed., June 27; Fri., June 29 9 a.m. – Noon

Our convention week begins with a sightseeing tour of Kansas City with its bustling downtown entertainment and theater districts, some very special museums, some very colorful characters from our "oh-so-colorful past" – President Harry S. Truman and Mickey Mouse both claimed our metroplex as home.

Our city was the real gateway to the frontier west in the early days. The Santa Fe, Oregon and California trails saw their travelers arrive by steamboat and depart by wagon train. Recent Kansas City progress is exemplified by our amazing Performing Arts Center, magnificent boulevard system, our restoration of America's third-largest railroad station across from Hallmark Crown Center, our beautiful neighborhoods, and the city's crown jewel – the Country Club Plaza, the "world's original suburban shopping center."

$38 per person: This city guided tour includes transportation.

CUSTOMS HOUSE TO WHITE HOUSE

Available: Tues., June 26; Wed., June 27; Friday, June 29 1 – 5 p.m.

This tour of Independence offers dancers a visit to our city's next-door neighbor, home of our 33rd president, Harry S. Truman. The city first gained stature as the Queen City of the Trails. The Civil War slowed the booming trail economy and Independence settled down to await the 20th century when it would, once again, become center-stage as President Harry S Truman moved into the White House. Our tour will introduce you to frontier Independence, the post-Civil War outlaw days, the Mormon influence and the White House years. A visit to the Harry S. Truman Library and Presidential Museum highlights the afternoon.

$46 per person: This guided tour includes transportation and admission to the Truman Library.

FLOWERS, FOUNTAINS AND THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

Wednesday, June 27

1 - 4 p.m.

“More fountains than Rome” read the laudatory description of our City of Fountains from a 20th century travel writer. Our favorite interactive fountain is at the Kauffmann Memorial Gardens, and we’re stopping to engage the fountain and surrounding gardens. Our city’s most prestigious fountains are found in the Country Club Plaza district and include the photogenic J.C. Nichols Memorial.

The most serene is in the middle of the Rose Garden at Loose Park. The roses will be near peak during our visit so we’ll “take time to stop and smell the flowers!”

$48 per person: Tour includes transportation and guide fees.

QUILT COUNTRY

Thursday, June 28

9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Wow! What a shopping tour this will be! We will visit Missouri Star Quilt Company in Hamilton, Missouri, trying our best to cover all eleven buildings of this quilter’s paradise. Shop to your heart’s content, our coach has luggage bays!

THE WILDEST OF THE WEST

Thursday, June 28

10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Join our tour guide for a visit to Jesse James Country. The tour will take you to Liberty, Missouri for a visit to the Jesse James Bank Museum, site of the world’s first daylight bank robbery, February 13, 1866. From Liberty, it’s a short drive to Kearney, the birthplace of Jesse James. We tour the farmstead and may even scrounge the root cellar for vittles. A leisurely drive back to Kansas City will include numerous stories, anecdotes and bald-faced lies about the James Gang. Grab your Stetson and ride along!

FLASH-MOB DANCE

Friday, June 29

10:30 – 1:30 p.m.

All interested dancers will gather at BARNEY ALLIS PLAZA, across from the Marriott Hotel, for a flash-mob dance. One quick tip - then we board the bus for three more locations (2 tips each) to share the joy of Square Dancing with Kansas City. We will return to the Convention Center.

BEVERAGE, ANYONE?

Friday, June 29

9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Ben Holladay’s Distillery in Weston, Missouri is the oldest continuously operated distillery in the country (they didn’t close during prohibition) and is the first stop on this adventure. We will tour the buildings and visit the tasting room and gift shop before returning to Kansas City for a tour of The Roasterie, a popular roaster of specialty coffees. Lunch will be on your own. The bus will stop at fast food so tourists can purchase a quick lunch and get back on the bus. A stop at one of the favorite local breweries concludes the outing. Cancelled

BATTLE OF WESTPORT

Saturday, June 30

9 a.m. – Noon

Okay, Civil War buffs, it’s high time you learned the real story. If you embraced the misguided theory those cadets from the Citadel got this ruckus started in Charleston’s harbor, you have been deceived by teachers, authors and historians. (Picture courtesy of Westport visitor Center Museum and Monnett Battle of Westport Fund.)

Late in the war, Confederate General Sterling Price led a raid across Missouri. Join Price as he engages the Yankees at the Little Blue River and proceeds to a point overlooking Westport. Visit two battlefields and learn of his defeat ending the war in the West.
